Date: 4/15/2009

Location: Main office, Washington D.C.

Invitees Attend:

Charles "Scott" Feldmayer (referred to as Scott)

Christopher Harvin

1. First Agenda Item – Ownership structure

Notes: Sanitas International, a Maryland based S-Corp, has operated to date as a shell company owned solely by Scott Feldmayer. Recent developments between Scott and Chris Harvin have finalized a partnership and splitting the equity equally, 50/50. The challenges regarding resolution in a 50/50 structure are well known to both partners. The spirit of this agreement, later to be finalized in an Operating Agreement prepared by counsel, is that Scott will have authority to settle issues concerning the company at large, Chris will have the authority when it comes to client servicing, and unanimous consent is required for all new client (business development) issues.

Additional Discussion Points:

- First split the equity
- Retain counsel for this and preparing an Operating Agreement

Decision(s):

1. Sanitas will now be owned by two equal partners: Charles Scott Feldmayer and Christopher Harvin

2. Second Agenda Item

Notes: Sanitas realizes the value of a clear and compelling brand and the management team will continue to refine the brand and marketing for the firm.

Additional Discussion Points:

- Website
- Color scheme
- Refine our story, value proposition, and core business functions

Decision(s):

1. Continue brainstorming over Summer 2009 of the marketing/brand strategy with the intent to contract marketing material this Fall and more formally launch the company in early 2010.
